EXCELSIOR 1971

Editor: Linda Geleynse
Assistant: Ardelle Sterk
Advisor: Mr. Art Hof

As the time sped by, each individual gathered bits and pieces of the glorious memories of his own special high school years.

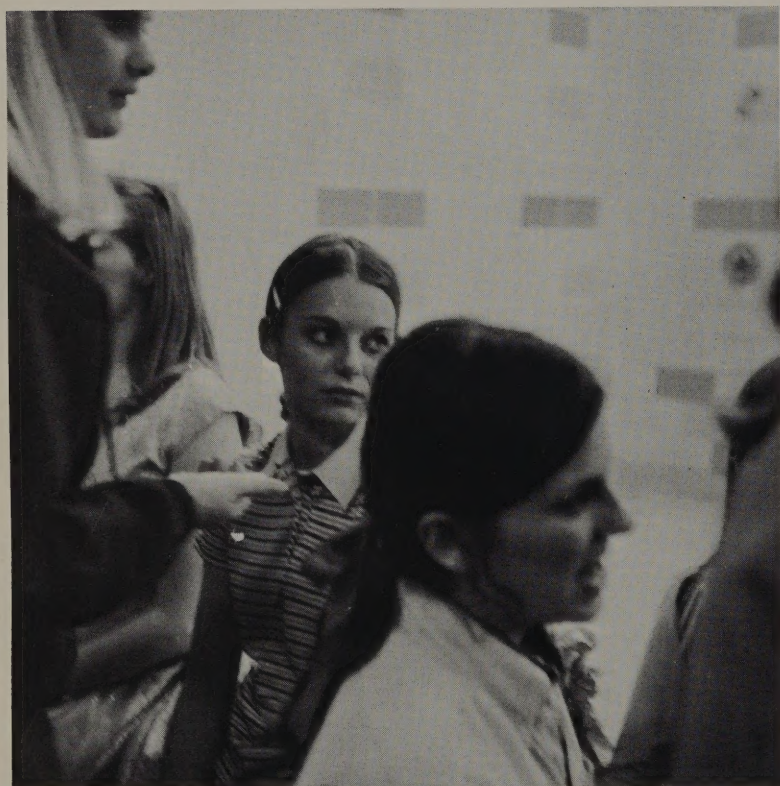

These pages hold some of the laughter, the tears, the joys, and the sorrows of the year 1971. They are a collection of thoughts, pictures, and memories to be reminisced over through the passing ages.

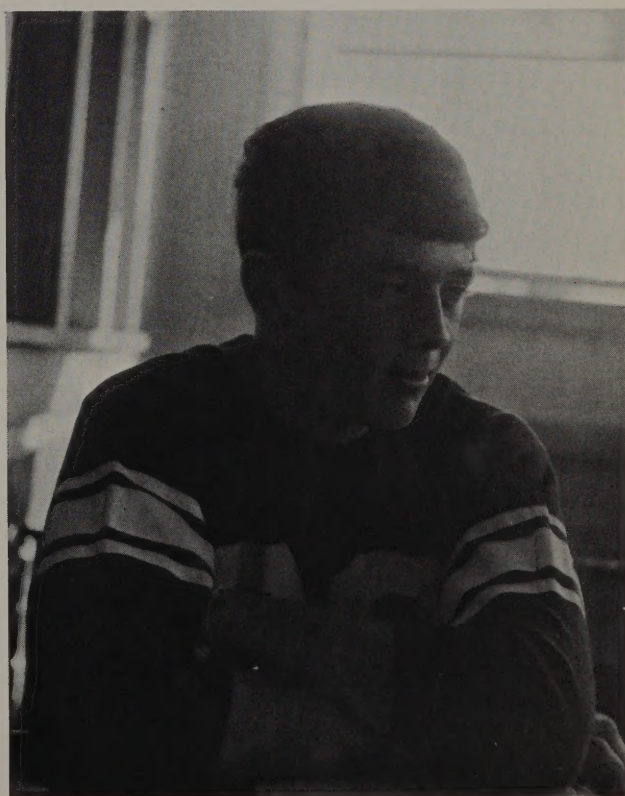

Although there is no specific theme to this years EXCELSIOR we have more or less tried to "Tell It Like It Is." There is a prevailing tone of the unity given to us by Christ. Each person, while retaining his individuality, has contributed some more than others to leaving his special mark on the lives of others. Each person has a responsibility to himself, his fellow man, and to his God. As was stated by John Donne, "No man is an island entirely of itself; every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main. . . Any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind, and therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls; it tolls for thee."

We, the Excelsior Staff,
Dedicate This 1971 Excelsior
to You, Miss Zylstra

Forty-seven years may seem quite a long period of time for most of us. Yet, as the years went by, Miss Zylstra has put forth a lot of precious time and talent into her services at L.C.H.S.

We thank God that He has given her these years at L.C.H.S. and hope she has enjoyed them.

We hope that as you look back on those years, Miss Zylstra, you may recall the wonderful times, the trials and experiences in your services here.

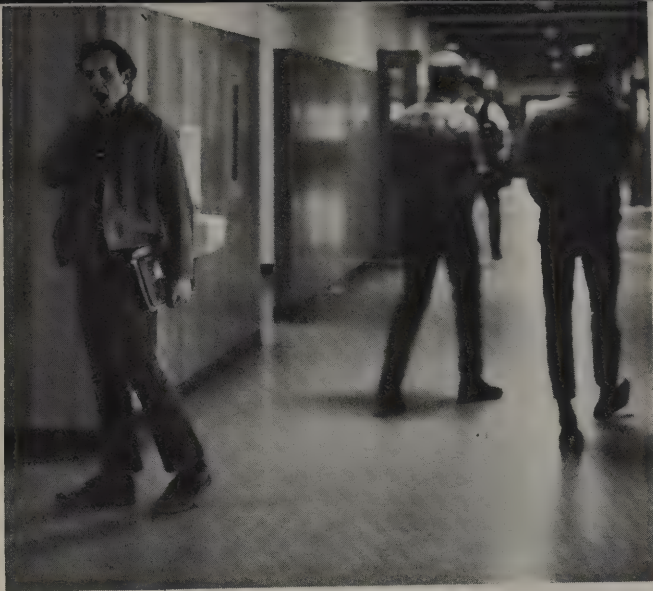

We pray that God will continue to bless you through the rest of your years.

To you, Miss Zylstra

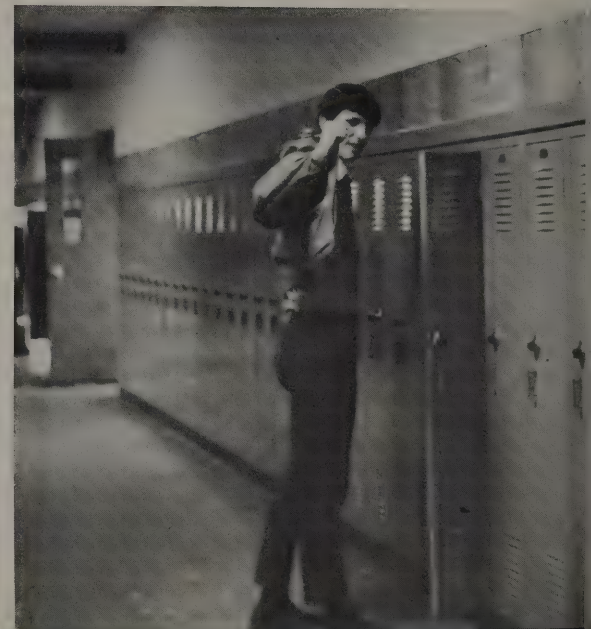

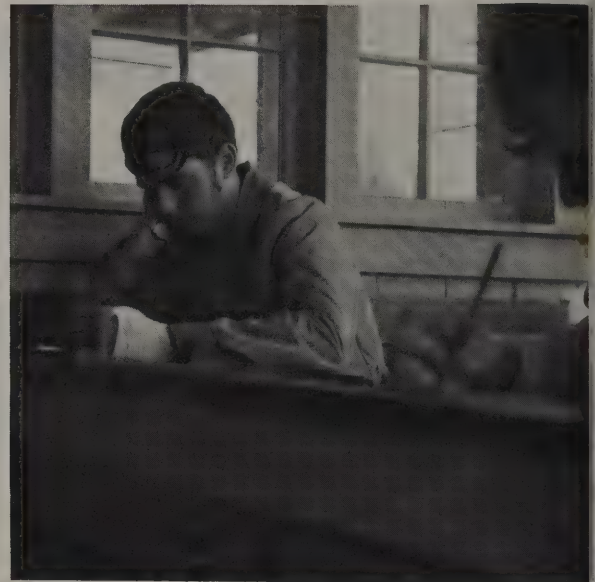

Thank-you

Chapel

Is God Speaking at LCS

Twice a week the student body was seen assembled in the chapel. Through the services of many students, teachers, ministers, and concerned individuals each student received the opportunity to worship together and listen to God speaking at L.C.H.S.

Did these services go unheeded? Was Chapel time just worthless? No! We don't believe it was! God was really there. He could be seen guiding the mighty Lyncs to their six-place State victory. He was seen in the results of a fantastic spring Retreat. Yes, God was there at L.C.H.S.—but not only was He seen in the good times. We all went through the bad ones, too, and God could be seen then also. Perhaps at the time we really didn't see Him or understand why things had to be the way they were, but He, was still there guiding, protecting, and comforting.

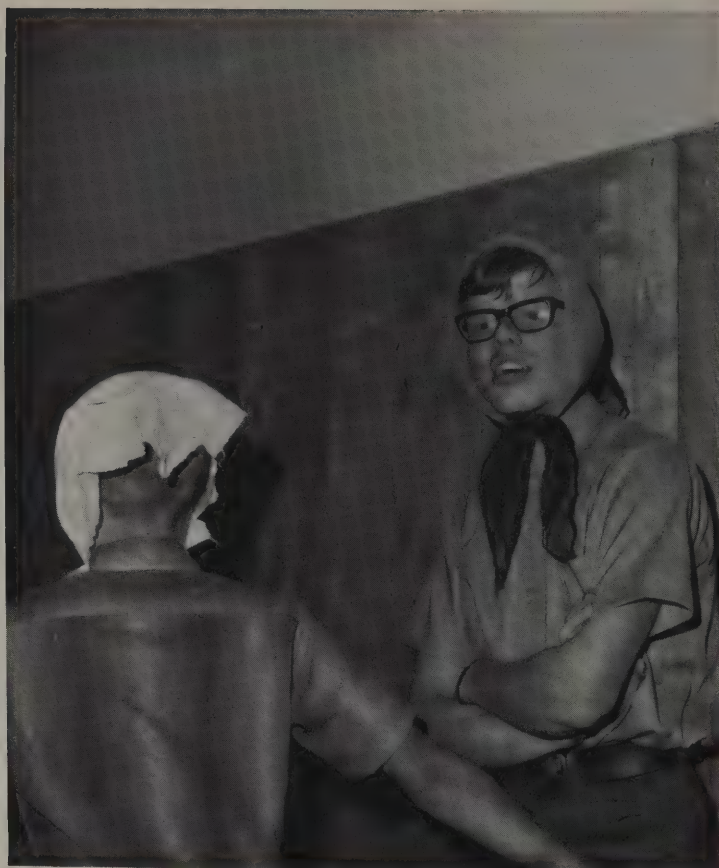

Yes, we do believe God does speak at L.C.H.S. and we feel He will continue to do so. Truly, God does speak at L.C.H.S.

A.S.B. Assembly

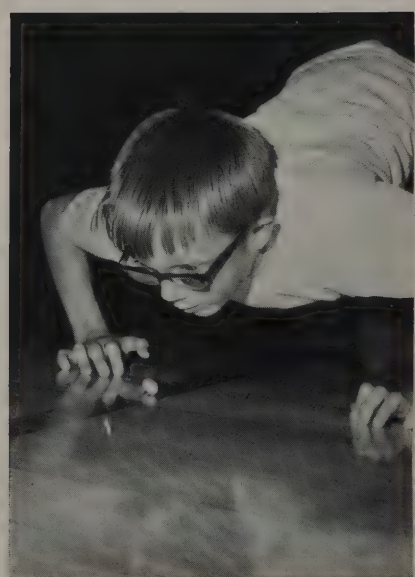

A splash of paint, slogans, skits, and speeches rang through the halls of L.C.H.S. as a part of the annual election week activities. This student government, one of the many fascits of L.C.H.S. school life, has once again changed hands.

Arnie Hendricks will be the new President. Rick Vander Yacht will help out as the Vice President, while Karen Kaemingk handles the money, and Cynthia Steensma the minute book. Many long hours of both pleasure and hard work are ahead of the newly elected officers for the 1971-1972 school year.

Junior Senior Banquet

After long months of planning, the Juniors invited the Seniors to the annual Junior-Senior Banquet under the theme, "We've Only Just Begun."

Arnie brightened the evening with his jokes and other entertainment included the reading of the wills and prophecies, a series of slides about the Seniors, and several numbers by the Sehome Swing Choir.

It was a very enjoyable evening and a reminder and challenge for the lives "We've Only Just Begun" in the service of our Lord.

Pep Club Banquet

“Lyncs for All Seasons”

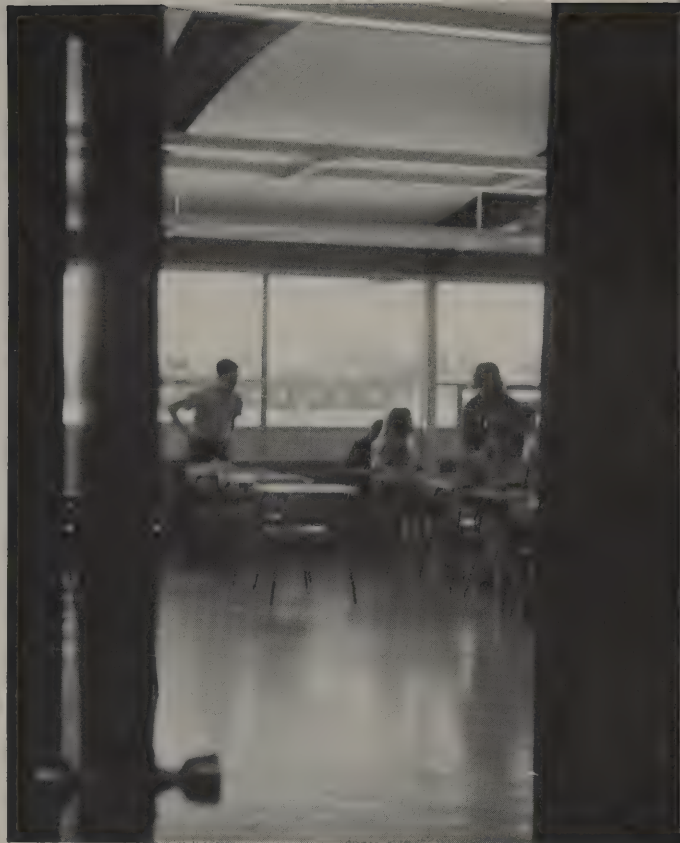

“Lyncs for all Seasons” was the theme for the All Sports Banquet honoring Lyncs athletes. Mr. Ebbers expressed his wit as master of ceremonies. Decorations on the walls showed the seasons of all the sports and the names of the athletes who participated. On the tables were the decorated tennis shoes, track shoes, football and baseball spikes of faithful Lyncs. For the first time Coach Otter honored girl athletes at the annual banquet. Coaches presented awards to outstanding athletes and Haines Faye presented the Darigold Award.

Capturing the memories of the 1970-1971 school year proved to be a very challenging and often hectic task for all members of the Annual Staff. The photographers spent many hours getting that perfect picture, while the Lit. Staff exercised their writing genius in describing the action of the year. Putting to use the skills gained in typing class, the typists put in legible articles the effort of the Lit Staff, while the Business Managers were assuring the financial success of our year-book.

We hope we have combined the days of school, the nights of fun, and all your special moments into these few pages.

Football

Turnout began in August with new enthusiasm as the Lyncs looked forward to playing in their new stadium; the largest in the league. With many Letterman back and a great coach to back them, the team kept one eye on the championship as they started off the season with no losses. Injuries soon took their eye from the championship but not from determination. It was a very profitable season and one of which they can be proud.

The Student Body would also like to thank the Alumni for all they did in making the football stadium possible.

It's on to State

The season began with uncertainty when head coach, Bill De Hoog, suffered a heart attack. Tony Mellema stepped in his place and by mid season the sights were aimed at Tacoma again. One of the highlights of the season was the victory over the No. 1 ranked Lynden Lions. It was touch and go in District Tournament until the Lyncs defeated Blaine for the State berth.

At State the fans cheered the Lyncs on to the Semi-finals and they went home with a 6th place trophy.

INTRAMURAL ASSISTANTS: Mr. A.Hof, Miss D.Otter, Advisors. P.Weg, T.Huizenga, Managers.

Intramurals

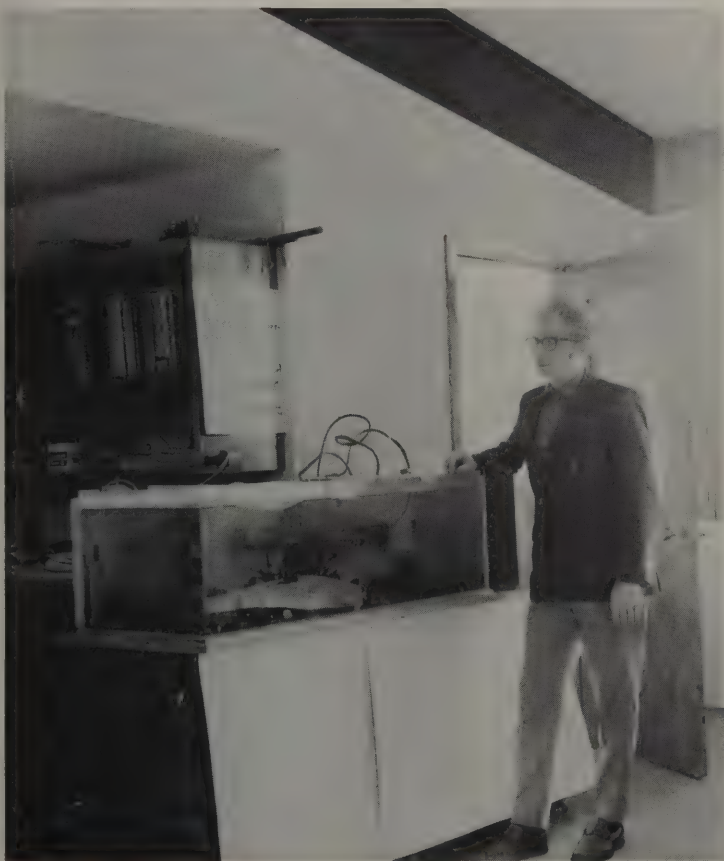

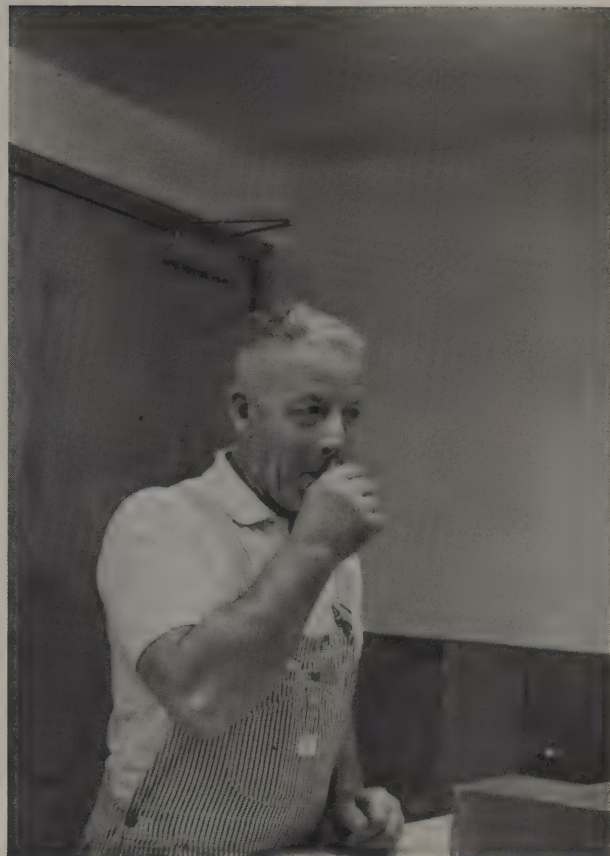

Many girls at L.C.H.S. spent after school hours keeping in shape with our intramural program. The activities offered this year were volleyball, basketball, bowling, and softball. By participating in these sports each girl earned points toward her school sweater. Additional points were required for letters. Intramurals proved to be challenging for each girl involved.

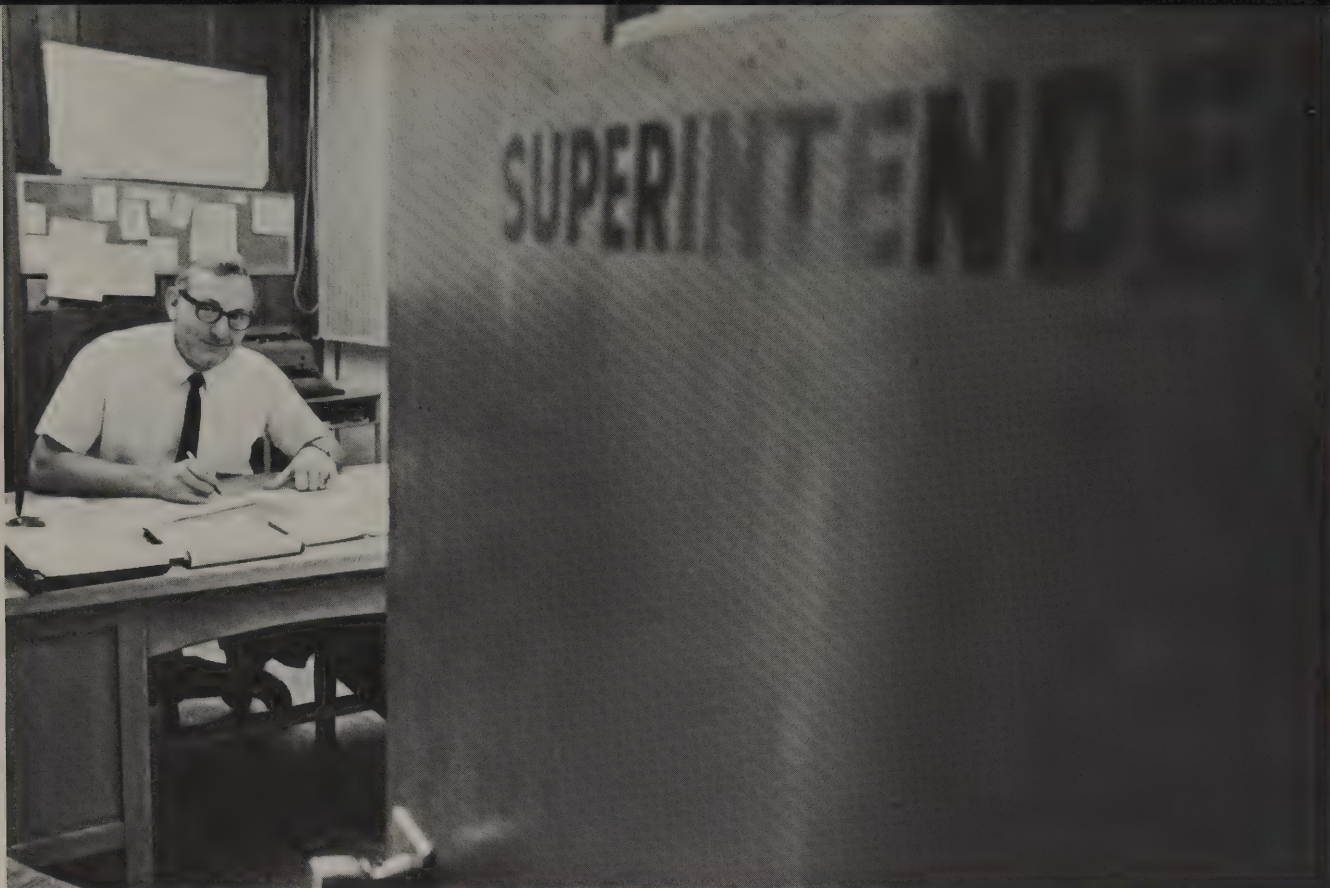

ADMINISTRATION

Superintendent-Mr. Boxum

"Tell It Like It Is."

It is said of today's youth that they are more direct and honest in their expression of what they think. The statement, "Tell it like it is", is a trade mark of today's young person. This forthrightness is hailed as a great virtue. Some politicians, writers, artists, psychologists, philosophers and religious leaders "proclaim liberty throughout the land" from the former age of stuffy puritanism.

Many make themselves ridiculous by clamoring for a place on the band wagon of the "tell it like it is" generation. Some say Jeremiah, Isaiah, Jesus and Paul didn't pull any punches in their teaching—they "told it like it was" for their generation. Let's be done with hypocritical beating around the bush. Let's "tell it like it is."

The Bible has direction for us here. The answer to the virtue or vice of "telling it like it is" is decided by the motive for your telling it at all. Every Old Testament prophet prefaced his frankness with a "This is God's message to you". The motive was one of love. Love and honor God in all things and all will be well. Jesus' most powerful and stern rebukes to the people were done from love. I am the Way, the Truth and the Life, Jesus said. Follow Me and all will be well.

So it must be for you and me. We must "tell it like it is" because Jesus tells us to do that. But it must be the love of Jesus in your heart and mine that causes us to tell it at all and then to tell it like it is. And this is the way it is—that God was in Christ, restoring the world to Himself, II Cor. 5:19.

That God so loved the world that He gave His only Son so that ANYONE who believes in Him will not perish but have eternal life, John 3:16. That if you seek the Kingdom of God FIRST, ALL THINGS you need will be provided for you, Matthew 6:33.

Not perfectly, but sincerely, prayerfully and persistently, those responsible for your instruction at Lynden Christian do indeed tell that most basic teaching like it is. By God's grace may you in your generation do likewise.

Yours in Christ,
Ben H. Boxum,
Superintendent.

Mr. Timmer has completed his first year serving as principal at L.C.H.S. He was also advisor to the A.S.B. as well as being helpful in many other ways. We think he has done a great job in his new position.

SENIORS

Masquerade Party

At 7:15, May 6, two chartered buses full of lively Seniors left for a day of fun away from the grind of a normal school day. They traveled to New Halem, where they toured the Gorge Dam and the rock gardens. After a delicious dinner at Gorge Inn, they toured Diablo and Ross Dams. That evening they climaxed their day at the Ice Follies in the Seattle Center.

Trip Day

Bacca- laureate

The traditional Baccalaureate Service was held in the Bethel Christian Reformed Church. Rev. John Hofman spoke on the theme "Shine Your Light So Everyone Can See." Mr. Del Vande Kerk favored us with a trumpet solo.

We were once again reminded to shine our lights for Christ always.

Graduation

Graduation night made us realize that all good things must come to an end, but even better yet, that there was a new life ahead.

Gerald Rutgers, our class speaker, captured our thoughts and goals as we look back on all memories of those twelve years, and looked forward to Shining our Light for Christ in the future years. Songleader, Kieth Timmer lead us in our class song "Amazing Grace."

Class Officers

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: B.Knutzen, Rep. J.Vander Veen, Treas., D.Gibson, Vice Pres., K.Timmer, Pres., S.Timmer, Sec., N.Matheis, Rep.

The Senior play ... bake sales ... masquerade party trip day ... and finally graduation are all part of a very busy year.

Graduating upperclassmen, now looking forward in the world are setting out into many diverse fields of study and professions. But they will always hold dear those wonderful years at L.C.H.S.

Four years of growth and maturity, physically, mentally and spiritually, have gone into the molding of a great and enthusiastic Senior Class.

Physical growth has been shown in it's outstanding athletes, mental growth in the large number of those reaching academic excellence, and spiritual growth as is shown in the class motto "Shine Your Light So Everyone Can See." This is the flame of faith carried by every class member.

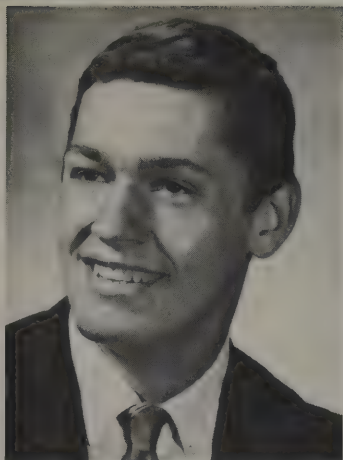

Class Motto: Shine Your Light So Everyone Can See

Class Song: Try A Little Kindness

Class Colors: Burgandy and Antique White

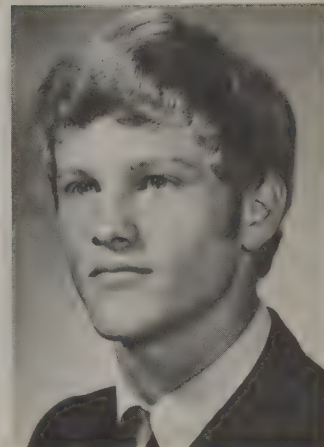

Class Flowers: Carnations

Due to faulty cameras, the picture of the 1970-1971 School Board did not turn out.

However we would like to thank the School Board members for all they have done in the past school year, and pray that God will continue to bless each one of the members through-out the years to come.
